

THE CATHOLIC PARLIAMENTARY LIAISON OFFICE

cordially invites you to participate in a roundtable discussion on

What has the NDP accomplished so far?

The National Development Plan is meant to set South Africa on a trajectory of growth and development. Despite being challenged by some sectors, a broad consensus seems to have emerged that the NDP will set the general direction of government policy in particular, and the country at large. In his State of the Nation address in 2014, President Jacob Zuma reiterated this commitment to the NDP.

Given that the NDP has been in force for over a year, a preliminary analysis is in order. Without prejudicing the entire project - it is a multi-year plan, meant to take the country through to 2030 - it is worth asking what has been done so far.
