

The Institute for Security Studies, the Catholic Parliamentary Liaison Office and the Hanns Seidel Foundation

cordially invite you to a roundtable discussion on

SA's Nuclear Programme: Lifting the Veil

"We expect to conclude the procurement of 9,600 megawatts of nuclear energy."

President Jacob Zuma, State of the Nation Address, February 2014

"Government is also exploring the procurement of the 9,600 megawatts nuclear build programme as approved in the Integrated Resource Plan 2010-2030."

President Jacob Zuma, State of the Nation Address, February 2015

"Our plan is to introduce some 9.6 Gigawatts of nuclear energy in the next decade."

Energy Minister Tina Joemat-Petterson, budget speech, July 2015

"Anyone who says we will build 9,600MW of nuclear stations is thumb-sucking."

Energy Minister Tina Joemat-Petterson, 30th August 2015

SA's nuclear build programme seems to be shrouded in secrecy and confusion. What will be built? Who will build it? How much will it cost? Who will pay for it? Will the process be open and transparent? Perhaps most importantly, do we really need it?

Speakers: Hilton Trollip (Senior Researcher, Energy Research Centre, UCT)

Murray Hunter (Organiser, Secrecy & Securitisation, Right2Know Campaign)

Government speaker to be confirmed

Date: Tuesday, 29th September 2015

Time: 09h30 for 10h00 – 13h00
A finger lunch will be served at 13h00

Venue: 6 Spin Street, Cape Town (formerly The Democracy Centre)

Please RSVP by Friday, 25th September to Helen Chanda HChanda@issafrica.org or Maria Beaunoir maria@cpllo.org.za or telephone (021) 461 1417.

Supported by the Hanns Seidel Foundation