

THE CATHOLIC PARLIAMENTARY LIAISON OFFICE

cordially invites you to a seminar on:

“Being on the right side of history” Three European responses to the Global Compact for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration: Acceptance, Stipulation, Rejection

The seminar will provide an outline how and why the ‘European’ response was so mixed: in Belgium the compact was first accepted but next caused a political crisis and the government toppled over it; in the Netherlands (and also Iceland, Lithuania, Malta and Denmark), there was a ‘stipulation’ added within the wider context of acceptance and in Austria, the new right-wing government rejected the compact and refused to sign it (just as in Hungary, Poland, Czech Republic, Croatia, Bulgaria)

Speaker: Dr Jan Jans (Associate Professor of Ethics, Tilburg School of Humanities and Digital Sciences)
