

Digest 2
January 2016

Refugees, Migrants and Displaced Persons

Dear Colleagues,

This Digest contains a cross section of links to various reports, stories and analyses on refugee, migrants and displaced persons. Some of them reflect interventions of the faith community, others refer to more analytical pieces, some refer to policy discussions. They are all part of an attempt to fill in the details so necessary for a thorough understanding of the complex human tragedy that confronts so much of the human family. The five key areas which the new UN Refugee Head has identified certainly stand at the heart of any sensitive reflection and point to the need for ever more urgent advocacy and action. These Digests are meant to support such activity.
